

THE STATE OF TEXAS

COUNTY OF SAN PATRICIO

Reference is made to a deed dated May 2, 1939, and the record thereof, said deed being now recorded in Book 34, Page 101-102, Oil and Gas Lease Records, San Patricio County, Texas. By said deed E. T. Gillett and wife purported to convey unto the undersigned, Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware, a mineral interest in a tract of land in San Patricio County, Texas, therein particularly described.

For a valuable consideration to the undersigned in hand paid by CORONADO CORPORATION, a corporation, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, SEABOARD OIL COMPANY OF DELAWARE, a Delaware corporation with permit and authority to operate and do business in the State of Texas, does hereby, for itself, its successors and representatives, assign unto aforesaid CORONADO CORPORATION, its successors and assigns, an undivided one-eighth of all the right, title and interest vested in Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware under and by virtue of the aforesaid deed, together with an undivided one-eighth of all the rights and privileges thereunto appertaining, and title to the interest hereby assigned is warranted by SEABOARD OIL COMPANY OF DELAWARE against the claims and demands of all persons whomever lawfully claiming or to claim the same, or any part thereof, by, through or under it, but not otherwise.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the hand and seal of SEABOARD OIL COMPANY OF DELAWARE is appended to this instrument, dated August 7th, 1939.
