

Texas, and received the approval of said School Land Board and of the Commissioner of the General Land Office;

WHEREAS, all of the oil, gas, and mineral leases included in said Brushy Creek Unit are owned by Shell Oil Company, a Delaware corporation, successor in interest to Shell Oil Company, Incorporated;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is agreed by and between the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the State of Texas, acting on behalf of the State of Texas, and Shell Oil Company as follows:

1. The royalty interest of the State of Texas under the above-described 30.84 acres of land included within the above-described Brushy Creek Unit, insofar as said royalty interest covers and applies to gas in and under said 30.84 acres of land, is hereby pooled and combined for gas within the above-described Brushy Creek Unit, retroactively effective as of May 25, 1942, on the same terms and conditions as set out in the above-described gas pooling agreement of May 25, 1942, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the State of Texas, on behalf of the State of Texas, as the owner of a royalty interest in said 30.84 acres of land, hereby ratifies and joins in said gas pooling agreement. As used herein, "gas" means gas as defined in said gas pooling agreement.

2. All of the terms and provisions of this agreement are subject to all state and federal laws and to all valid rules and regulations of any duly constituted authority having jurisdiction in the premises. This agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective successors and assigns of the parties here to.

EXECUTED as of the 8th day of February, 1956.
